Detecting Middle Eastern Criminal Enterprise by Sgt. Al Doane

Middle Eastern Criminal Enterprise (MECE) is a constantly growing problem in the United States and worldwide. While many MECE organizations fund terrorism many more are established purely out of greed. Organizations, terrorist based and greed based, operate in the same manner and can be discovered in the same fashion. Most of these criminal enterprises take place right in front of each of us and are based out of storefronts in our communities. This block of instruction will give you valuable ways of detecting MECE operating in your jurisdiction.
